THE MOHICAN COMPANY

SPECIALS FOR TUESDAY

7c Lean Rib Best Carolina Lamb Chops Head Rice Hamburgh Fresh Cut Str.ngless Beans can Hamburg Steak lb Small and Lean Our Special 12 lb Hams Blend Coffee 8c Lean Sliced Karo Corn Syrup Boiled Ham 2 pound cans, Davis Baking Powder Lean Lamb 1 pound cans, can For Stewing

Black Pepper Ib 14c | Best | Potatoes pk 17c | Maine Potatoes pk 17c

STEVEDORE GETS 15 DAYS

On the charge of theft, a stevedore giving the name of William Smith was sentenced to jail for 15 days by Judge Foster of the city court today. Special Policeman McCullough stationed at Howland's caught the man shoplifting at a jewelry counter and took from him articles aggregating in value $2.50.

MALLEY.—In Shelton, Friday, March 3rd, 1911, William J. Malley, aged 29 years.

HALL.—In this city, Friday, March 3, 1911. Edward L., beloved son of Edward C. and Delia Hall, aged 37 years, 2 months, 24 days.

—Friends are invited to attend the funeral from the residence of the parents, No. 35 Calhoun avenue, on Tuesday, March 7, at 9;20

—Interment at St. Bernard's cemetery, New Haven, Conn.
—A funeral mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul at St. Augustine's church Thursday morning, March 9th, at seven PECKLES.—In this city, March 5th, 1911, Jennie L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, and wife of Wm. F. Peckles of Buckland, Conn.

Prayers will be offered at the residence of her parents. No. 131 Hough avenue, on Wednesday, March 8th, at 10 a. m., and funeral service will be held in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 10:45 a. m.

—Burial in Buckland, Conn.

—Friends may view remains Tuesday evening from 7 to 9. S 6 b * p GRIPPIN.—In Grand Canyon. Arizons, March 1st, 1911, William A Grippin, aged 60 years.

—Funeral service will be held at his late residence, Marina Park, (Bridgeport.) on Wednesday, 8th inst., at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

—Burial in Mt. Grove cemetery.

TERRY.—In this city, March 4th, 1911, Mrs. Emma Terry.

—Friends are invited to attend the funeral from the undertaking parlors of E. Orlepp & Co., 171 Buffoughs street, on Tuesday, March 7th at 2 o'clock p. m.

—Interment at Lakeview cemetery.

DIETMANN.—In this city, March 5.

1911, George Dietmann, son of Catherine and the late George Dietmann, aged 23 years, 12 days.

—Friends are invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his brother, Fritz Dietmann. No. 220 Alice street, on Wednesday. March 8, at 2:30 p. m. and from the First German Evangelical Lutheran Zion church, at 3:00 p. m.

—Interment at Park cemetery.

JOHN RECK & SON 985 Main St. Tel, 759-3

JAS. HORAN & SON FLORISTS

THE SPRING Flowers

ARE NOW IN BLOOM AT HAWKINS, FLORIST

RE KCNUKENTS ARTISTIC--- LASTING. Plant operated by pnoumatic cut-

HUGHES & CHAPMAN. SOO STRAFFORD AVENUE.

The mother of Ivan Turgeney, the Russian novelist, was a trying person to live with, irritable, capricious and unreasonable. On ivan's birthday in 1845, we are told in "Two Russian Reformers," after a day of festivities, Mme. Turgenev pretended to be dying. "She sent for her confessor and, placing before her the portrait of her son Ivan, exclaimed 'Adieu, Ivan! Adieu, Nicolas! Adieu, my children!'
Then she ordered her forty servants and all the men employed about the

"'I give orders that tomorrow morning the disobedient servants, Nicolas Jacovief, Ivan Petrof and Egor Kondratatief, shall sweep the court in front of my windows. "Those names were those of serv ants who had not appeared at her bedside, possibly because they were a little drunk that evening. 'Good for nothings! Drunkards! exclaimed Mme. Turgenev. They rejoice at the death of their mistress!"

Why She Quit Her Job. A lady of my acquaintance in Tokye. says a writer in the World Wide Mag azine, possessed a valuable servant o somewhat mature years who rejoiced in the poetic name of Oharu San-"The Honorable Miss Spring."

One day Miss Spring brought in luncheon as usual. All seemed serene there was not a shadow of a cloud in the domestic sky. But at teatime no tea appeared; neither, in answer to calls at first patient and afterward impatient, did Oharu. After awhile the lady went herself to the back re gions and found-desolation. The char coal box was filled with gray ashes. the kettle cold. Half the luncheon plates lay immersed in a bowl of soapy water; the other half stood on the sink ready to be put away. Oharu herself simply was not. The next morning, however, she re appeared, very much on her company manners, with a clean kimono and her hair done in a shining bun to denote the state of a matron, demanding the fragment of wages due to her since the beginning of the month. The lady ex postulated and asked why the servant was leaving thus suddenly.

"Oh," replied Oharu, "just as I was washing the plates yesterday I remembered that Saito San, the pawnbroker, wanted a wife. Therefore I went out and married him.'

Unjustly Accused. Andrew Carnegie, when talking about the Scotch dialect once, said: "Scotch dialect is a lingo hard to un derstand, and it often causes awkward mistakes. Once an American divine spent Christmas in a highland inn. On Christmas morning he gave the maid a tip of a sovereign, and he said, looking earnestly at her, for she was a pretty maid: "'Do you know, Kathleen, you are a very good looking lassie? "Of course Kathleen was pleased, but, being modest, she blushed like a rose and answered: "'Ab, na! Ah, na! But my kissing, sir, is beautiful!"

"The divine frowned. "Leave the room, you wicked young baggage!' he said sternly. "He didn't know, you see, that modest Kathleen had been simply praising in her highland dialect the superior charms of her cousin Janet of Pee-

Philosophic Tea.

The famous Adam Smith had all the proverbial absentmindedness of the philosopher. An amusing story of him is told in Mr. Fyvie's book, "Noble Dames and Notable Men of the Georgian Era." "Mr. Damer, it appears, called one morning upon the Scottish philosopher just as he was preparing his breakfast. As they talked the learned man took a piece of bread and butter in his hand and, after rolling it round and round, popped it into his teapot and poured the boiling water upon it. Damer watched with quiet amusement without drawing attention to this peculiar proceeding, and presently he had his reward, for when 19 19 Adam Smith poured himself out a cup

RUBBER STAMPS

Any sort of Rubber Stamp made to order at very short notice. By the way, have you seen the Rubber Marking Sets for the use of merchants for making neat and natty quick signs. These are great money earners, shown and sold at JACKSON'S BOOKSHOP, 986-988 MAIN ST. else.

he quite innocently remarked to his visitor that it was the worst tea he had ever met with."

Not Stealing.

David Belasco delicately dissected a certain playwright one evening at a dinner given by the former to some of his friends of the theatrical profession. This playwright is successful and produces many plays, but, it is admitted, owes nearly all his best ideas to oth-—Friends are invited to attend the funeral from th; undertaking parlors of M. J. Gannon, No. 1051 Broad street, on Tuesday, March 7th, at 8 a m. and from St. Thomas church, Fairfield, at 9 o'clock.

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the following order appeared:

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the following order appeared:

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the following order appeared:

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the following order appeared:

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the following order appeared:

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the first of the following order appeared:

—Interment at St. Thomas of M. St. Thomas of the first of the fir went to the butler's pantry and there discovered a masked man kneeling over the chest of silverware.

"'Aha!' said he huskily. 'Stealing?' "'Oh, no,' replied the burglar calmly. 'I'm only adapting.' "

Time to Make a Change. William Phips was appointed governor in chief of the province of Massachusetts Bay in 1692. During his administration the terrible war against witchcraft raged for some six teen months. When his own wife Lady Phips, was named as having exercised the powers of witchcraft Sin William began to view this whole terrible madness in a new light, and he jut a stop to all trials and discharged the prisoners then awaiting trial.

The Way It Happened. Brother Lobstock-How did yo' all got yo' nose busted? Brother Tumpdone slipped down an' plumb lit on my back. Brother Lobstock - But. name o' goodness, sah, yo' nose isn't located on yo' back! Brother Tump-No. sah, an' needer was Brudder Wack.-Puck.

Ambiguous. "Why did you spend so much money on your wife's funeral?" asked a man of a neighbor.

"Ah, sir," was the reply, "she would have done as much for me and more. too, with pleasure."

Sincerity.

Be resolutely and faithfully what you are; be humbly what you aspire to be. Man's poblest gift to man is his aincerity, for it embraces his integrity 1lso.-Thoreau.

Too Busy For Repentance. Singleton-Do you believe in the old adage about marriage in haste and repent at lais re? Wedderly-No. I don't. After a man marries he has no leisure.

If we gave assistance to each other no one would be in want of fortune .-

-Smart Set.

A Wetter if Not a Better Man. A little man in the west of England rushed to the river last summer, swear ing loudly that he would drown him When he had waded in to the depth of his waist his wife, who had followed him, seized him by the hair, and then, as a local editor de scribed it, she led him back till b reached a place where the water wa about two feet deep, where she pulled him over backward and soused him under and pulled his head up again "Drown yourself (down he went leaving me to father the brats! (Ap other plunge.) Get drunk (anothe souse and start for the river! (An other dip.) Better use the water in stead of rum! (Another dip and shak of the head.) I'll l'arn ye to leave me widow!" After sozzling him to he heart's content she led him out a wetter if not a better man and escort ed him into the house and closed the

The Gordian Knot.

The famous Gordian knot was made of leather taken from some part of the harness belonging to the charlot of Gordius, king of Phrygia. It seemthat this knot was so tied that the ends of the leather thong were not vis tble, hence the difficulty in loosening ft. Many must have tried to untie it. for its fame as a "sticker" at last reached the great oracle, which declared that the lucky experimenter should he rewarded by the kingship of Persia. Alexander, trying his hand and meeting with no better success than the others, drew his sword and cut into the knot until he found the ends

No one is useles in this world who lightens the burden of it for any one

HAS NEVER SEEN

This is Testimony of Mrs. BRIDGEPORT by Son to Prevent Father Selling Property.

The startling claim that another woman is occupying the place that should be filled by Mrs. Samuel Thorpe in the Thorpe homestead in Madison road was made today in the probate porters are scheduled for this week court when the hearing was begun on | at Hartford. petition of William T. Thorpe, a in his eccentric mother's stead. The son fears the father will secure his mother's waiver to her rights in property valued at upwards of $70,000, a fine stretch of land on Madison road, and he seeks to have a conservator appointed to act for her, alleging she is incompetent.

Mrs. Bartram, a neighbor of the Thorpes, testified that old Mrs. Thorpe been poorly clad for years, wearing the same clothes winter and summit-like existence for years and has never seen a trolley car according to her own statement, was the testimony of Mrs. Bartram.

Former Judge of Probate Nobbs with Attorney William F. Kelsey reprents the son, while the father is represented by Attorney John C. Cham-

When Attorney Chamberlain heard the story of Mrs. Bartram, he suggestwas one that should be handled by the prosecuting attorney rather than by he probate court.

NEW DEMOCRATIC WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE ACTS

(Special from United Press.) Washington, March 6-Behind lock bolts, the new Demoratic Ways and Means Committe, today, took up its serious labor. In its dual role as committee on committees and ways and means, it began the outlining of the entire policy of the House of Representatives of the next Congress. The organization of the House and the settling of a definite executive program, particularly as to tariff revision, were the big problems.

Washington, March 6-After 48 years of continuous government service, F. I. Willis, 71, a veteran of the Civil War, dropped dead at his desk in War Department, today.

(Special from United Press.)

SHOT PLAYMATE (Special from United Press.) Meriden, March 6-Arthur Dupon 16 years old, is in the hospital with a bullet wound through his right lung and his playmate, Bernard McGann, 15, is held under bonds of $1 000 on a technical charge as the result or a shooting accident here, yesterday. The boys were engaged in target practice when the bullet from a 22 cal'bré rifle in McGann's hands went com-

STATE POLICEMAN VERRELLI IN RAID ON BRISTOL SALOON

pletely through Dupont's chest. He has small chance of recovery.

$328.80 in fines and costs in city court, today. Guilotosi, arrested with Michael, yesterday, was fined a to-tal of $47.50. State Policemen Bridgeman and Virelli made the arrests.

PAINE IMPROVING.

At the Bridgeport hospital today it

BUSINESS MEN'S DINNER.

The Business Men's Association has sent out notices that its annual meeting and dinner will be held on March

NOT IN AERONAUTICS.

Joseph T. Lee, manager of the Elm cafe, asked The Ft mer today to state for him that he is not in any way interested in the aeronautic meet which F. McLaughlin proposes to bring to Bridgeport. One of the papers said that Mr. Lee is to be manager. He states that the use of his name was entirely unauthorized, and that he never entertained any such idea.

DAVIS HAD DOG HARNESS

Percy Davis, just out of jail, was arrested this noon by Detective Hall and held for investigation. Two dog harnesses were found in his possession and his reputation led the police to believe he did not come honestly by them. The harnesses were marked, "Jackson."

MANY FATALITIES IN EARLY BLAZE

(Special from United Press.) Cleveland, O., March 6.—One man is missing and is believed to be dead. six are fatally injured and twenty others badly hurt as the result of a fire that, at an early hour this morning, destroyed a three story apartment house occupied largely by Greek and other foreign families.

BRAVE COP SNUFFS OUT DYNAMITE BOMB FUSE

(Special from United Press.) Chicago, March 6 .- A desperate attempt to kill more than a score of persons as the result of a cut rate fight between rival grocerymen was averted, today, by the bravery of a policeman who put out the burning fuse of a dynamite bomb with his bare hands. The policeman found the bomb under the home of Ignatio D'Amico and Joseph Paristone, rich Italian grocers.

WEST VIRGINIA MUST PAY VIRGINIA $7,182,507 Tennie

(Special from United Press.) Washington, March 6.-The Su-preme Court of the United States, today decided that West Virginia must pay Virginia $7,182.507 in the long Pharmacy. stand state debt case.

Hearings of importance to Bridge-to have a conservator appointed tion of $100,000 for repairs and addition to the State armory will come up for a hearing tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 before the committee on Appro-On Wednesday, March 8, the committee on New Towns and Probate Districts will hear the arguments of those who favor annexing a portion of the town of Fairfield, known as the Brooklawn district, to Bridgeport, The parcel that it is desired to annex beongs to the estate of Clapp Spooner, and the petitioners are Judge R. E. DeForest and Frank T. Staples, trustees of the estate. It is said that House Leader Banks of Fairfield will oppose the measure which means that it will probably not pass.

The various bonding measures that have been submitted by or in behalf of this city will come up for a hearing on Thursday, March 9, at 2 p. m. This city will be well represented at this hearing.

On the same day there will be hearing before the Educational com-mittee on the bill to change the present method of naming members of the ent method of naming members of the Library board. Now the present members nominate themselves and seek approval of their own selection by the Common Council. It is proposed to return to the former method and have the Mayor name the members of that board as he does all other boards save the Park board.

There will also be a further hearing Saturday on the bills proposing the annexation of Stratford.

FIRE IN CANDY SHOP

Fire in the candy shop of I. Reiss at Carroll avenue and Orange street called out the department at 2:30 this afternoon, on an alarm from box 542. The flames, which had started under the counter from some unknown cause, were subdued before the ap-paratus arrived. The damage was

OBITUARY

With many sorrowing friends and VETERAN DROPS DEAD relatives in attendance, the funeral of lda F. Hatch Scribner, wife of John R. Stine, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home in Laurel avenue, and thence to the First M. E. church, in which she had long been where the services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. George M. Brown. Rev. William H. Kidd, rector of the First Methodist church of Meriden, and a former pastor of the First M. E. church in this city, assisted in the services. The church choir, consisting of Nanchen C. Adams, soprano. Emma M. Hallock, alto; George L. Moore, tenor, and George S. Hawley, bass, with William E. Davenport at the organ, rendered, "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The interment was in Mountain Grove cemetery.

The remains of Katherine Maloney sister of the late Daniel Maloney, for many years town clerk of Fairfield. and who for the past 21 years was superintendent of St. Thomas' Sunday school, were laid at rest this morning in St. Thomas' cemetery, following give beauty and grace. lins, in Cemetery avenue, and thence to St. Thomas' church, where Rev. Father O'Dell sang a high mass of (Special from United Press.)

Bristol, March 6—On four counts of selling liquor without a license, Michael Angeno was fined a total of the services. "Nearer My God to Thee." The bearers were Joseph Farrell, Thomas McCann, Thomas Gor-man Edward Thompson, Joseph Lee and John Mullen.

Funeral services over the remains of John O'Connell were held this morning from his late home, 291 Lafayette street, at 7:30 o'clock and thence to Sacred Heart church where was stated that Aviator Frank Paine is doing very nicely although the hospital authorities are not prepared to say just how soon he will be able to leave the institution. ed by one daughter, Charlotte, a teacher in the New York public schools and two sons, John and William O'Connell.

> It is easier to scale fish if they are first dipped for an instant into boiling things to have at any time; but particularly in the Spring.

Grippe Colds

Rexall Grippe Pills enough to cure any case, 25c the box.

Rexall Cold Tablets, will break up a cold in "a jiffy"-20c.

warranted to stop that tickling in the throat SMOKE and the cough: 25c-45c

Hot Water Bottles in all grades from 75c to $2.50 each. All priced over $1.50 guaranteed for 2 years.

Hamilton's

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main street, Fairfield avenue, and Cannon street

Bridgeport, Conn., Monday, March 6, 1911.

The Weather-Snow, rain tonight; fair tomorrow.

Yorke shirts.

New styles in these splendid shirts for men who pick with judgment.

Men who pick a shirt for its good appearance, will choose a Yorke in comparison with any other. Men who choose because of quality will pick out Yorke. And for fitting ability and workmanship in making and all the other points that go to make up a good shirt, Yorke shirt easily are notable.

New gathering of these excellent neglige shirts for spring is now here. "Tis the largest and the nicest that ever came into the store; doubt if any to excel it ever was shown hereabouts. Men who know are going to be quick to pick from it-are going to find that picking a mighty pleasant process.

Pure white shirts, either plain or pleated. White with figures or stripes in black.

White with colored figures or stripes. Always, the patterns are tasteful and attractive. Freakishness is "passed up" by the makers of Yorke shirts; they seem to know what will suit particular men.

Most are coat style with attached cuffs but there are a few with separate cuffs for men who prefer them.

$1 and $1.50.

Right of Main street door

Corset-covers- 25c.

Quite a collection of corset-covers from stock.

A number of styles, each one in odd sizes. But about all sizes are in the gathering.

Lace trimming, embroidery trimming, inserting, ribbon beading—all are used to Usual prices 35c and 39c, voke.

Night-gowns- 59c.

Good-sized lot of pretty night - gowns of special worth.

Made of good cambric and well-made. Not alone good-looking but actually good. Both neck and sleeves are trimmed with torchon lace of linen of pretty pattern and ribbon is run through Usual price 75c,- 59c.

Biarritz gloves--

Good Fortune was the messenger who brought these gloves here so they can be sold at 59 cents. Biarritz gloves, as all women know, are the sort with con. The remains were taken to New no opening in the wrist; a very comfortable sort for early Milford for Interment. He is survivspring wear. These are of fine lambskin, are cut on nice-fitting model, are finished very well. Maker counts them as good value to retail at a dollar. In black and tan, in sizes 53/4 to 7.

Center aisle, rear.

14c.

14 cents isn't too-little.

Frankly, 14 cents is all-too-little a price for these are annoying, dangerous fancy white goods that are now spread out.

Why they even make the store-folks, critical as they are, to fairly brim over with enthusiasm. And they would eclipse lots and lots of the fancy white cottons sold regularly at 25 cents and 19 cents a yard.

Fine stripes, line plaids, checks. Delightfully fresh and crisp and dainty. Full of goodness as well as beauty.

Left aisle, rear.

Cherry Bark Syrup is THE HOWLAND DRY GOODS CO.

Best 15c Cigar

For 10c

without advertising is like the fellow who throws his sweetheart a kiss in the dark. He knows what he is doing, but nobody else does."

"The fellow who tries to attract business

-W. J. Bryan.